

Sal Corrente of WrestleReunion had a lawsuit against Clear Channel/Live Nation because they reneged on a contract with him. The case went before a jury and Mr. Corrente lost the case, which many feel was unjust. But Eric Bischoff made a statement on wrestlezone.com, which is below, that caused Sal's lawyer to send his statement:

In my last post regarding the WrestleReunion/Live Nation lawsuit, I suggested that Bill Behrens and Eric Bischoff were expert witnesses for WrestleReunion. That was not the case as they were actually witnesses for the Clear Channel/Live Nation side. I just spoke with Eric Bischoff who said he agreed to be an expert witness after reading and taking interest in the case, however he was not called to the stand.

"The case was wrapped up quickly," Bischoff told Wrestlezone.com, "the jury didn't waste any time and came back with what I felt was the correct decision".

Eric was happy with the outcome, to say the least. "Rob Russen and Sal Corente give the wrestling business a bad name," he stated, "so I'm glad justice prevailed and the bottom feeders didn't win one".

Bischoff wanted to make sure that everyone knew his comments and opinions were solely his and did not reflect those of Clear Channel/Live Nation.

In regards to the above statement, we have a statement from Mr. Corrente's lawyer:

"It is odd that Eric Bischoff, whose well-documented incompetence caused the demise of WCW, should have any comment on the outcome of the WrestleReunion, LLC lawsuit. The expert report Bischoff submitted in this case bordered on illiteracy, and Bischoff was not even called to testify by Clear Channel/Live Nation because Bischoff perjured himself in a deposition in late-July 2009 before running out and refusing to answer any more questions regarding his serious problems with alcohol and sexual deviancy at the Gold Club while the head of WCW. To even sit in the room and question him was one of the most distasteful things I've ever had to do in 17 years of practicing law. In fact, we understand that Bischoff was afraid to even come to Tampa and testify because he would have to answer questions under oath for a third time about his embarrassing past.

The sad state of professional wrestling today is directly attributable to this snake oil salesman, whose previous career highlights include selling meat out of the back of a truck, before he filed bankruptcy and had his car repossessed. Today, after running WCW into the ground, Bischoff peddles schlock like "Girls Gone Wild" and reality shows featuring B-listers.

Sal Corrente, on the other hand, has always been an honorable man, and he delivered on every promise and paid every wrestler while staging the three WrestleReunion events. Unlike the cowardly Bischoff, Mr. Corrente took the stand in this case. Although his company did not prevail, Sal Corrente proved that he was man enough to fight to the finish -- something Bischoff could never understand."

Sincerely,

We just wanted to give Mr. Corrente's lawyer a chance to speak his mind.

Since I have always had wrestlers autograph signings as a speciality for any website I worked for, I know for sure, Mr. Corrente is an honest promoter who has NEVER stiffed a wrestler working for his shows or conventions. I would have heard about it. There are many promoters who do that in this business, which is very sad.
